

FINANCE YOUR LEGAL FEES!

WE WORK WITH ALL CREDIT TYPES!

Have you tried in the past to obtain a loan for your legal expenses but were turned down? As you probably have learned, it's quite complicated to obtain a loan for a legal expense. Added to that the heavy requirements of having spotless credit, no bankruptcies or repossessions, it certainly can seem like you're trying to tackle Mount Everest just to obtain a loan!

Now you CAN finance legal fees!

Lenders Financial Group, Inc is a financial brokerage firm that can get you approved - regardless of your credit history - to finally be able to finance your legal expenses. Not only can you get a loan but, you can get a loan with a lower payment than most firms will allow you to pay to them on an installment plan.

Lenders Financial Group doesn't only make the loan process painless, but, through their network of affiliated lenders, they even take care of disbursing funds FOR YOU! All you have to do is simply contact Lenders Financial Group to provide some very basic information about yourself and what your needs are and they will do the rest. Once you have been approved for your requested amount, they will then coordinate sending the funds to your defense team.

NLPA is pleased to participate in Lenders Financial Group's program. This means that if you have a legal expense that you are currently paying toward with NLPA or, if you would like to obtain NLPA's services for the first time - Lenders Financial Group can make it happen. Further, although NLPA offers an installment plan, often times if pressing deadlines become an issue, it does not afford you the time to stretch out your payments over a long enough period of time that would enable you to pay with ease. That's not a problem anymore. Once you have paid your initial deposit to NLPA to get started, you can apply for a loan for the balance owed to NLPA through Lenders Financial Group and they will be able to pay that balance for you and leave you with the ability to pay that balance to them over a far more extended period of time.

Lenders Financial Group can also get you approved to finance your attorney's fees as well. Once you are approved for the total amount, Lenders Financial Group will take care of distributing the appropriate funds to your legal defense team and your attorney. You then only have to pay one place each month for the total fee.
